

ENGLISH

Chapter 17 Session A

3rd
SECONDARY

LET'S GO!

 SACO OLIVEROS

HELICOMOTIVATION

Future tenses: review

- 1 Read the examples and complete rules 1–3 with the words in the box.

intentions possibility predictions

Don't worry, everything will be fine!

Jo is going to visit Asia.

I might travel more when I'm older.

- 1 We use will/won't for future predictions
- 2 We use be going to for future intentions
- 3 We use might/might not for future possibility

probably and definitely

The adverbs probably and definitely go after affirmative auxiliaries and before negative auxiliaries.

I will probably travel when I finish university.

I definitely won't leave school this year.

2 Complete the dialogue with will / won't or might / might not and the verbs in parentheses.

A: Do you think Miro 1 will become (become) a writer when he's older?

B: Perhaps! He 2 might be (be) famous in the future.

A: I think he 3 'll definitely have (definitely / have) some amazing experiences while traveling, but he 4 probably (probably/not take) any formal exams.

B: So when do you think 5 won't take you'll leave (you / leave) school?

A: I'm not sure yet. I 6 'll probably leave (probably / leave) at 16 or 18. What about you?

3 Match sentences 1–4 with emoticons a–d. Then write them in order of probability. 3, 1, 4, 2

1 I'm probably not going to finish my project today.

c

2 I'll definitely finish my project today.

d

3 I definitely won't finish my project today.

a

4 I might finish my project today.

b

Present tenses with future meaning

5 Read the rules and examples. What are the negative and question forms?

We use the simple present for future events that are part of a schedule.

Our plane doesn't leave at ten o'clock.

Our plane leaves at ten o'clock. What time does your plane leave?

We use the present progressive for future arrangements.

We aren't coming back in August.

We're coming back in August. When are you coming back?

6 Complete the dialogue with the correct form of the simple present or present progressive.

Adnan: Hi Ben, it's Adnan.

Ben: Hi Adnan, how are things?

Adnan: Good, thanks. I'm calling about our trip to the Science Museum on Sunday.

Ben: Yes, great! What time

1 are we meeting (we / meet) ?

Adnan: How about 12? The museum

2 opens (open) at 11.

Ben: Yes, that's fine – I can meet earlier if you want. My brother 3 is giving (give) me a lift. 4 Are you getting (you / get) the train?

Adnan: Yes – my train 5 doesn't arrive (not arrive) until 11:45, so let's meet at 12. 6 Is your brother coming (your brother / come) to the museum with us?

Ben: No, I 7 'm meeting (meet) him later in town.

Adnan: OK, cool. See you there!

Future tenses: review

- 1 Reinforcement Complete the sentences using the future form in parentheses, and phrases in the box.

climb / to the top go / to a museum
have / a lot of fun see / Buckingham Palace
take / a tour visit / London

- 1 Marek and Ben _____ this winter. are going to visit London.
- 2 Marek _____ (probably/will) or two, but will probably go to a museum
Ben _____ – he thinks they're boring! definitely won't (definitely/will not)
- 3 Marek _____ the Shard – he doesn't like heights! (not going to) isn't going to climb to the top.
- 4 They _____ in a pedicab if they aren't too expensive. (might) might take a tour
- 5 They _____ ! (definitely/will) 'll definitely have a lot of fun.

2

Challenge

Write sentences with going to, will and might, and probably/definitely.

Page 123

Greetings from Turkey

Wish you were here!

- 1 My family and I / go abroad this summer
(it's our intention) My family and I are going to go abroad this summer.
- 2 We / visit / Turkey / or we / fly / to / Thailand.
(both are possible) We might visit Turkey, or we might fly to Thailand.
- 3 We / stay / at a hotel by the beach. My dad hates the beach! (definite) We definitely won't stay at a hotel by the beach. My dad hates the beach!.
- 4 My mom and dad / take / a tour of the top tourist sights – they usually do! (probable) My mom and dad will probably take a tour of the top tourist sights.- They usually do!
- 5 I / go / with them, because I prefer to sit in cafés.
(not probable) I probably won't go with them, because I prefer to sit in cafés.
- 6 Anyway, I'm sure we / have a good time. (a prediction) Anyway, I'm sure we'll have a good time.

A photograph featuring three white daisies with yellow centers on a rustic wooden surface. A small, rectangular, light-brown card with a hole on the left side is placed in the foreground. The card has the words "Thank you!" written in a black, cursive script. A dark, thin string or wire is threaded through the hole in the card and loops around the back of the first daisy. The background is softly blurred, showing the texture of the wood and the other two daisies.

Thank
you!