From Science Fiction to Science Fact

When Jules Verne 1 (...) (publish) From the Earth to the Moon in 1865, no other writer before him 2 (...) (go) into such scientific detail about a journey to space. In fact, these details 3 (...) (come) close to predicting the Apollo 11 launch in 1969. Since Apollo 11, the Russian space agency 4 (...) (send) tourists into space and more companies 5 (...) (probably / do) the same soon.

In 1895, H. G. Wells 6 wrote about a group of inventors who were sitting around a dining room table. Their host 8 started to talk about time being the fourth dimension and later, he told them about traveling in time. After reading it, I have been wondering about these questions: Will we be traveling through time in 50 years' time? And 10 will we have prevented a disaster by traveling back in time to fix it by the end of this century?
