PAGE 54

1

Me neither! Time flies
when you're having fun.

2

I wish I hadn't done that.

Look, You can't turn back the clock — and change what you did, but you can learn from it.

3

Did I make the right decision? I don't know!

Who knows? I guess time will tell .

4

Sorry I'm late! I hope you haven't done all the work by yourself!

PAGE 54

Better late than never . You can help me move the furniture.

5

Look – he's over there, speak to him now. There's no time like the present . Good luck!

3 ☆☆ Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verbs in the box.

be (x2) make manage run

- 1 I didn't finish my homework last night because I ran out of time.
- 2 My interview was at 10:30, so I arrived at 10:15. I like to be on time for things.
- 3 Tara isn't too good at managing her time: she needs to be more organized.
- 4 I got to class as the bell was ringing. Fortunately I was just in time!
- 5 We haven't seen each other for ages. We must make some time for each other soon.

4 ☆☆ Complete the text with the correct form of the words in the box.

clock have in late make ~~manage~~
on out of tell time

Time to get organized!

PAGE 54

1 Managing your time well is a useful life skill. Nobody likes to run 2 out of time or let someone down because they haven't done something they promised to do! You can't turn back the 3 clock, so it's better to get something right the first time around. So, what can you do?

Set your priorities and 4 make time for those things first.

- Make a schedule and follow it. If you have homework due for Thursday, make sure you do it on Tuesday or Wednesday (or earlier!); that way your work will be done 5 on time and won't be late. You shouldn't be doing it on Thursday on the bus going to school – even if it's done just 6 in time, it won't be your best work. You'll enjoy doing something more if you're not stressed – remember, time flies when you're 7 having fun!

PAGE 54

- Think ahead. Do you need to be somewhere at 10:00 am? Make a list of what you have to do before and how long each thing will take. Be realistic. Arriving long after you should isn't good. 'Better 8 late than never' isn't always the case.

So, will you be better organized in the future? Time will 9 tell ! What are you waiting for? Remember, there's no 10 time like the present!
