1 ☆ 🔊 15 Listen to part of a radio show about travel. Which question are the people discussing?

- a What advantages can tourism bring to wild places?
- b Should we limit the number of tourists who visit wild places?

2 ☆☆☆ Listen again. Circle the correct answers.

- 1 According to James, the people who visit wild places like Antarctica
 - a don't think about the problems it causes for the environment.
 - b don't really care about the environment.
- 2 The number of tourists to Antarctica is limited
 - a by a new law.
 - b by the weather.
- 3 According to James, the biggest problem in the Galapagos Islands comes from
 - a pollution in the ocean from ships that bring visitors.
 - b waste that tourists leave on the islands.
- 4 According to James, tourism
 - a doesn't usually help local farmers.
 - b often provides money for local people.
- 5 James believes that tourism in wild places
 - a should be stopped completely.
 - b should be controlled.

3 ☆☆ Circle the correct option. Listen again and check.

- 1 Today we're talking about wild places like/
example Antarctica.
- 2 Good example/Basically, more and more people are attracted to these places.
- 3 Like/So, a lot of people want a new law to limit
the number of tourists each year.
- 4 But for example/apparently, tourists create problems there, don't they?
- 5 A good example/for example is Easter Island.

- 1 According to James, why do more and more people want to visit places like Antarctica and the Galapagos Islands?

They want to visit these places because they are very beautiful.

- 2 What kind of damage do tourists do in the Galapagos Islands?

They damage plants and disturb young animals.

- 3 Why doesn't tourism help local people?

Because hotels and tourist ships don't always buy food in the local area.

- 4 According to James, what is the benefit of tourists visiting wild places?

Tourists are more likely to care about them.

Good morning. 1 Can I help you?

Yes. I'd like two tickets for the bus to the city center, please.

Of course. 2 Are you taveling now?

Yes, we'd like to get on the next bus.

That's fine. 3 One-way or round-trip?

Round-trip, please. We're coming back this afternoon. 4 How long does it take?

About 15 minutes. And the buses leave every half hour.

That's great, thanks. 5 How much is it?

The tickets are $2.50 each, so that's $5. 6 Are you paying cash or card?

Cash, please. Here you are.

Transportation and traveling

- 1 Complete the reviews with the words below. There are two words you don't need.

~~by~~ canoe comfort drive jams ride
set off sights trip trolley

If you go to Morocco, you should definitely travel 1 _____ by _____ land rather than flying, so you can see the amazing countryside. And if you want to experience the desert, why not

2 ride over the sand on a camel?
They really are amazing animals! It's best to 3 set-off early, before the sun gets too
hot. You'll probably be out of your 4 comfort zone at first, but just try to relax and enjoy the experience!

If you're visiting Yellowstone National Park, why not take a 5 trip down one of the rivers in a 6 canoe ? It's nice to get away from the busy tourist 7 sights that are always so crowded with people, and it's better than going by road because you know there won't be any traffic 8 jams !

2 Complete the text with the adjectives below.

amazing delicious ~~delighted~~ exhausted
huge small unforgettable

A two-day birthday?

Most people enjoy their birthday and would be absolutely 1 delighted if it could last a bit longer than normal. But some people go to a really 2 huge amount of effort to achieve this. The way to create your own 3 unforgettable and extra-long birthday is to travel in a plane across different time zones, from New Zealand to Hawaii.

If you do this, your birthday can last for 48 hours!
This sounds absolutely 4 amazing, but don't forget that you will spend the whole time in a plane, where the seats are quite 5 small and the food might not be 6 delicious ! And you will probably feel absolutely 7 exhausted when your journey finally ends!

PAGE 50

1 Circle the correct option to complete what the people say about their travel plans.

PAGE 51

I'd love to visit Antarctica, but I think it
1 might be/going to be too cold for me!

I 2 'm going/will to visit my uncle
in Mexico next year – I'm so excited!

My school exchange trip to China is in three weeks – I'm sure it 3 will/might be amazing!

I 4 will definitely/definitely will visit the Eiffel Tower when I'm in Paris.

There are some amazing tourist sights in New York, but we 5 won't probably/probably won't have time to see them all!
