-  Work in pairs. What are the people doing in the photos? How do these things bring you happiness?

2 Copy and complete the table with the correct form of the words in the box to make new nouns.

achieve equal happy reader satisfy star young

-dom	-ity	-ment	-ness	-ship	-th	-tion
boredom stardom	equality	achievement	happiness	readership	youth	satisfaction

Word formation: nouns

Understanding suffixes helps boost your vocabulary because you can make so many new words. Keep words with a similar ending together in your notebook. Remember to include any spelling changes.

3 Add the correct form of the words in the box to the table in exercise 2. Use a dictionary to help you with the spelling.

~~bored~~ celebrate champion creative enjoy excite free grow involve lonely necessary participate relation relax strong warm

-dom	-ity	-ment	-ness	-ship	-th	-tion
boredom	Creativity	Enjoyment	Loneliness	championship	Growth	celebration
Freedom	Necessity	Excitement	Warmness	Relationship	Strength	Participation
		Involvement				Relaxation

4 Complete the dialogues with nouns from exercise 3. Do you agree with them?

Working hard is important, but taking time off for 1 relaxation is just as necessary.

I agree. I find using my 2 creativity, for example by drawing, really helps to relax.

B

I think 3 participation in a 4 championship is much more important than winning or losing it.

You're right, but I think winning boosts your 5 enjoyment.

Yes, and a close match increases the 6 excitement.

A radio interview

6  18 Listen to a radio interview with Rebecca Mann. Which of the nouns from exercises 2 and 3 does she mention?

Freedom	Necessity	Excitement	Warmness	Relationship	Strength	Participation
Stardom	Equality	Involvement	Happiness	Readership	Warmth	Relaxation
		Achievements			Youth	Satisfaction

Subskill: Listening for the information you need

Read the sentences carefully and think about the kind of information you'll need to listen for, e.g. place, number, name or verb.

Work in pairs. Read the sentences.

Discuss what kind of information is missing in each one: a verb, a noun or a country?

- 1 Research shows that teenagers in country are happier than most others in the world.
- 2 Teenagers in this country find it easier to a verb with different people.
- 3 Teenagers in other countries often have less a noun than these teenagers.

- 4 They enjoy life and their a noun is high.
- 5 Students in Los Angeles were in a better mood when they a verb another person.
- 6 Happiness is part of the school curriculum in country , country and country .
- 7 We shouldn't forget to celebrate our a noun , which can be very small things.
- 8 Although young people a verb becoming rich and famous, research shows that this does not always bring happiness.

8 Listen again and complete the sentences in exercise 7 with a word or short phrase.

1 Research shows that teenagers in The Netherlands are happier than most others in the world.

2 Teenagers in this country find it easier to develop strong relationships with different people.

3 Teenagers in other countries often have less freedom than these teenagers.

- 4 They enjoy life and their satisfaction is high.

Comparing

- 1  Work in pairs. Read the pairs of examples. Do they mean the same thing (S) or something different (D)?

- 1 a Dutch teenagers find it much easier to talk to adults than teens in other countries.
b Teenagers in other countries don't find it nearly as easy to talk to adults as Dutch teenagers. same
- 2 a Dutch teenagers enjoy a bit more freedom than teenagers in other European countries.
b Dutch teenagers are by far the freest youth group in Europe. different

2 Look at the examples in exercise 1 again and complete the rules with a bit, not nearly or much.

- 1 We use a lot, far and much with comparative adjectives and by far with superlative adjectives for a big difference.
- 2 We use slightly, a little and a bit with comparative adjectives for a small difference.
- 3 We can also use just, not quite and not nearly with as ... as ...

as ... as, not so/as ... as

We use as ... as in positive sentences and questions.

In negative sentences, we can use so or as with not

Are young people in other parts of the world as happy as Dutch teenagers?

They aren't as/so happy as Dutch teenagers.

3 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the word in parentheses.

1 It's more difficult to find time for my friends. (so)
It is not so easy to find time for my friends.

2 I've never attracted as many followers as now. (most)
These are the most followers I've ever

3 I'm taking fewer subjects than last year. (not)
I'm not taking as many last year.

4 I don't spend nearly as much time on social media as I used to. (far)
I spend far less time on social media than I used to.

5 Not many of my classmates live nearly as far from school as I do. (lot)
I live a lot farther from school than my classmates.

5 Find and correct five mistakes in the questions. One question is correct.

- 1 Are you just ~~so~~ as happy alone as when you're with people?
- 2 Who's the funniest person you know?
- 3 Would you be far lonelier living on a desert island than living in a large city?
- 4 Is happiness far more desirable than fame and fortune?
- 5 What's the least interesting TV series you've ever seen?
- 6 People say winning isn't as important as taking part. Do you agree?

7 Complete the text with one word in each blank.
