By the time I ⁶ fixed (fix) them, it ⁷ had started (start) to rain, so I ⁸ abandoned (abandon) the idea of biking. And that's why I'm drinking black coffee. Ugh!

SOMEONE I KNOW ...

1 Sara might not be somebody you notice immediately, but she's definitely someone you want to know better. We met one evening, when it was absolutely freezing and completely dark – I'd missed my usual bus home and was waiting nervously at the bus stop. Sara was there too, so we started chatting. That was two years ago and we've been friends since then.

2 Sara's short and slim with brown eyes. She's chatty and likable, and gets along well with everyone, although she is a little shy. Once you get to know her, you realize she's extremely supportive of all her friends and she's really thoughtful. She's always ready to help and listen to your problems. She can be slightly grumpy if she's hungry or tired, but she's usually enthusiastic and funny.

SOMEONE I KNOW ...

A description of a person

1 Read the description. How long has the writer known Sara?

3 One incident with Sara stands out in my memory. A group of us had been playing beach volleyball all afternoon, so we were really exhausted. Suddenly, I realized I'd lost my favorite necklace. We searched everywhere. Finally, the others left, except Sara. She was determined to find it, although I'd given up hope. An hour later, while I was complaining, she laughed and held up my necklace! I'll never forget that.

4 I am delighted that I met Sara and proud that she's my friend. She's one of the kindest and most optimistic people I've ever met – and definitely an interesting character!

5 Complete the anecdote with suitable words from exercise 4.

I remember one time we went camping with my friends. When we arrived, it was raining heavily and we got 1 absolutely soaked putting our 2 extremely old tent up. Then we discovered we'd left most of our food behind. I was 3 totally furious, but Serena just laughed. She's 4 fairly creative with food and 5 fairly sensible, and she was determined to have fun. She quickly cooked something with the ingredients we had – it was a/an 6 really interesting meal and 7 completely delicious! It was a/an 8 totally unforgettable experience.

6 Find all the adjectives in the text in exercise 1. Use them to write your own sentences about people you know. Add the adverbs in the box.

absolutely extremely quite rather very

My best friend is very supportive and extremely thoughtful.

- 7 Write a description of an interesting person.
Follow the steps in the Skills boost.

SKILLS BOOST

THINK

Choose a person to write about. It can be someone you know well, an acquaintance or an imaginary person.

Make notes about the person. Include how you met them, details of their appearance and character, and an anecdote about them. Note any useful vocabulary from the model text or unit.

PREPARE

Look at the paragraph plan in exercise 2 and organize your notes into four paragraphs.

Look at the adverbs in the Subskill and decide which to use and where to use them.

WRITE

Write your description. Use the model to help you.

CHECK

Read your description and answer the questions.

- 1 Have you used a variety of the tenses from the unit? ☐
- 2 Have you used personality adjectives and adjectives describing characteristics? ☐
- 3 Did you make and follow a paragraph plan? ☐
- 4 Have you used adverbs with gradable, extreme and absolute adjectives? ☐
