Sarah Jane (works/is working) at Primark in the mall in town. She likes her job because she (is meeting/ meets) new people and (is getting/gets) to see all the new clothes that come in. This week, she (isn't working/doesn't work) because she (are/is) on holiday. Sarah (likes/is liking) doing different activities while she (is/ are) off work. At the moment, she (is learning/learns) how to ride a horse. Horse riding (doesn't/isn't) dangerous, but riders must always wear a safety helmet. As a newbie, she (doesn't have/isn't having) to go too fast. It (is/are) easy to get on the horse, but getting off (is/are) a bit tricky for her. Sarah (is riding/rides) the horse carefully and then cautiously (is climbing/climbs) down when she (is needing /needs) a break. It (is being/is) a little frightening, especially when the horse (is starting/starts) to run, but at the same time it (is/are) very exciting. Right now, Sarah (feeds/is feeding) the horse. The horse riding training school (arranges/ is arranging) a contest for beginners by the end of the month. Sarah (is/are) very excited about it. She (is hoping/hopes) to do well. Her dream (is/are) to become a professional horse rider in the future.
