D

What happened
to you last night?

I hurt my arm while I
was skateboarding.

Who did you call ?

I called my dad.

Milena Anya chose it, but it was a mistake. Luckily, someone called me in the middle of the movie, so I had to leave.

Kobe Ha ha. Who called you ?

Milena It was Matt. He called to ask me to give some old things to raise money for an animal charity, so I said yes.

Kobe That was nice of you.
What did you give ?

Milena I gave my old skateboard. It's a really good one, but I don't use it now.

A radio show

► Subskill: Predicting what you will hear

Read the questions and different options before you listen, and ask yourself what you might hear in the listening.

1 ☆ Read the task in exercise 2 and guess what the radio show is about.

- a a discussion about the advantages and disadvantages of being famous
- b tips about how to make a difference and inspire other people
- c personal stories about meeting inspiring people

1 Yash Gupta C

2 Walt Disney A

3 Didier Drogba D

4 Felix Finkbeiner B

3 ☆☆☆ Listen again. Are the sentences T (true) or F (false)?

- 1 Yash Gupta needed his glasses to study. T
- 2 Yash started to raise money to help people in poorer countries to buy glasses. F
- 3 Didier Drogba now plays soccer in Ivory Coast. F
- 4 Felix Finkbeiner started by planting a lot of trees. F
- 5 Felix's organization has planted trees in lots of countries. T

2

Because it was too scary.

3

Because he wanted to encourage children to plant trees in order to stop climate change.

4

What difference do you think Yash Gupta makes to young people's lives?

Personal answers

#4 - #5 - #6

5

Why do you think Felix wanted to encourage children to plant trees, rather than adults?

6

Which tip do you think is the most useful? Why?

Giving an opinion

1 ☆ Circle the correct option.

- 1 What did you think/felt of the trip?
- 2 Won't/Don't you think that it was a little boring?
- 3 How/What do you reckon?
- 4 In my opinion/idea, the tickets are too expensive.
- 5 I/I'm reckon that Jo would love this!
- 6 I loved it! I thought it was terrible/awesome!
- 7 I didn't enjoy it at all. It was really awful/amazing!

I thought it was incredible!

Didn't you think it was a little quick? If you ask me, it's too expensive for something that only lasts about a minute!

Well, yes, it was quick, but in
my opinion it's worth the money.
The views were really fantastic!

Personal qualities

1 Read what two people say about their dream jobs. Circle the correct option.

B: My dream job would be to design video games. Of course, you have to be 5 creative/positive because every new game needs new ideas. Game designers usually work in teams, so they need to be 6 curious/sociable. It isn't a good job for people who are 7 quiet/noisy and like being on their own. They also need to be 8 unfriendly/reliable, so everyone in the team can depend on them.

Yes, I think they can. I started a campaign in my soccer club to help children with disabilities to play soccer. Over 300 people signed my online petition, and we've started a new team!
Mateo, Spain

We don't have any power or money, so I think the best thing we can do is study, to gain knowledge about the problems of the world. Then, when we're older, we can start working to achieve our goals. Trish, USA

Of course! If we work together and support each other, kids can really change the world !
Cristiano, Brazil

home when I saw (see) a program about elephants dying in Africa. I felt really sad, so I started (start) raising money to help save them. While I was putting (put) up a poster one day, some of my classmates asked (ask) me what it was for. When I explained (explain), they promised (promise) to help too. Now we organize lots of events and regularly send money to an elephant charity.

Ana Oliveira

Who sent you the information about the petition?

Clara sent it to me.

4

What did you do to help advertise the event?

I made some posters.

5

Who did you send the information to?

I sent it to all my friends.

ROUND-UP

Complete the article with one word in each space.

I 1 was walking home
from school last week when

I saw something amazing! A woman got off the bus with her shopping, but she had too many bags to carry. While

I was watching and thinking about what to do,
a teenager walked up to the woman and offered to help. The teenager didn't know the woman – he just wanted to help. It really made me think! We see situations like this every day, where someone needs a bit of help. But what day, where someone needs a bit of help. But what do we do? Usually nothing! It doesn't take very much time or effort to do something kind. A random act of kindness (or RAK for short) is something kind that you do to help someone you don't know. And a RAKtivist (like me) is someone who does this. So who do I help? Well, anyone I can, usually in small ways, like opening a door for them or giving them my seat on the bus. The most amazing thing about being a RAKtivist is that you meet a lot of people, and you make their lives just a little better.
