A live report

FUN FACTS

Many schools with a uniform have a 'No Uniform Day'. Students pay £1 or $1 to wear their own clothes. Schools use the money for a party or a trip, or they give it to charity.

4  21 Listen to a reporter for a school radio station. Do the students like No Uniform Day?

1 Ella: yes/no

2 Dylan: yes/ no

3 Kate: yes/no

Subskill: Listening to questions and answers

In live reports, listen carefully to the questions that the interviewer asks, as well as the answers.

5 Listen again. Complete the table.

	What is he/she wearing today?
Ella	A long dress and boots.
Dylan	Jeans and a hoodie.
Kate	Pants and a top.

6 Listen again. Complete the sentences with adjectives.

- 1 Andy thinks Ella's clothes are very trendy.
- 2 Dylan is wearing casual clothes today.
- 3 Dylan thinks it's crazy to buy expensive clothes for No Uniform Day.
- 4 Kate thinks her school uniform is uncomfortable and old-fashioned.

Simple present and present progressive

- 1 Read the examples in the table and circle the correct option to complete the rules.

Simple present	Present progressive
