Pew Research Center, Washington DC
asked American teenagers to keep a diary for a school year and found:

Girls spend around 38 minutes a day on things like loading or emptying 1 the dishwasher and setting or clearing 2 the table while boys spend around 24 minutes on these jobs.

These girls usually spend about 29 of those minutes sweeping 3 the floor or cleaning 4 the bathroom .

They also spend more time than boys on doing 5 the shopping for their parents.

Girls often help their mothers make 6 dinner while fathers spend time relaxing with their sons.

However, both girls and boys now spend an extra half an hour a day on their homework than they used to!

4 ☆☆☆ Complete the diary with a suitable verb in the correct form.
