

ENGLISH

REVIEW

4th
SECONDARY

Chapters 4-5-6

Session A

 SACO OLIVEROS

Describing people

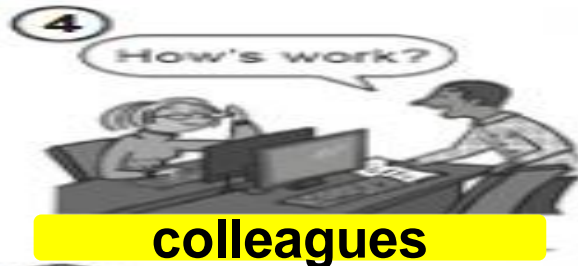

1 ☆ Write the opposites using the correct negative prefix (un-, dis-, in-, im- or ir-).

| | | |
|----|-------------|-------------------|
| 1 | friendly | unfriendly |
| 2 | kind | unkind |
| 3 | honest | dishonest |
| 4 | loyal | disloyal |
| 5 | mature | immature |
| 6 | patient | impatient |
| 7 | reliable | unreliable |
| 8 | responsible | irresponsible |
| 9 | sociable | unsociable |
| 10 | tolerant | intolerant |

2 ☆ Match the words in the box with pictures 1-9.

classmates colleagues roommates
next-door neighbors opponents relatives rivals teammates travel buddies

Comic life

Comic books are full of interesting relationships, a little like life! Take Thor and Loki – they are 1 acquaintances/siblings because Loki is Thor's adopted brother, but they are also 2 enemies/strangers who fight each other. Occasionally, they work together against another 3 classmate/rival, but they are never close 4 friends/neighbors.

Then there's Peter Parker, who is Spider-Man. Spider-Man's main rival, The Green Goblin, turns out to be the father of his 5 best friend/roommate at school, Harry Osborn! It's hard to be a superhero when a relative of a good friend is your 6 enemy/stranger! It's even trickier because Peter Parker and Harry Osborn are 7 next-door neighbors/roommates who share a house.

Or what about Clark Kent, who is, of course, Superman? He was brought up by his parents Martha and Jonathan Kent, but they are not actually his 8 opponents/relatives – they found Superman when he was a baby and took care of him. Later they discovered he was from another planet. Clark works as a newspaper reporter and he's in love with his 9 colleague/teammate, reporter Lois Lane.

4 ☆☆☆ Complete the sentences with the words in the box. Then answer the questions.

enemies friend relative

1 How did you meet your best _____ ?

2 Who in your family is your favorite _____ ?
Why?

3 How could _____ become friends?

Personal answer

Essential and non-essential adjective clauses

1 ☆ Circle the correct option.

- 1 Merida is the city which/where I grew up.
- 2 That's the boy whose/that mother works at our school.
- 3 My phone is something who/which I always have with me.
- 4 Pizza is the food that/where I like best.
- 5 That was the year which/when I met my best friend.
- 6 My sister is the person which/who I can always talk to.

2 ☆☆ Complete the text with the correct relative pronouns.

New friends

Can you think of a time 1 when you wanted to make some new friends, but weren't sure how? Well, next time you can try these tips.

- Make contacts. If you're at a party : where you meet some new people, make sure you arrange a time when you can meet up again.
- Think about your area. Are there any neighbors who you'd like to get to know? Try chatting with them next time you see them.
- Take up a sport or hobby. When you're doing an activity that you enjoy, you'll be more relaxed. Talking to someone whose interests are similar to yours can be easier too – after all, you have something in common.
- Join a choir. Scientists who have studied relationships say that singing together in a group helps people get to know each other quicker.
- Show interest. Asking questions lets people know you are genuinely interested in them. It's something that is important to many people.

3 ☆ Add commas to make non-essential adjective clauses.

- 1 Last February, when we were on vacation, it snowed twice.
- 2 My sister, who loves cooking, showed me how to make pizza.
- 3 Cancún, where we go most summers, is one of my favorite places.
- 4 Social networks, which are becoming more popular, can be good ways to stay in touch.
- 5 My friend, whose brother is friends with my brother, lives near me.

4 ☆☆☆ Complete the second sentence so the meaning is the same as the first.

- 1 Last year I made some new friends. I was visiting my cousins. (when)

Last year, when I was visiting my cousins, I made some new friends.

- 2 My dad had a big party and invited all his friends. His birthday was last week. (whose)

My dad ,whose birthday was last week, had a big party and invited all his friends.

- 3 The book only cost $5. It has an amazing cover. (which)

The book ,which has an amazing cover, only cost $5.

- 4 My friend's cousin lives near us. She is studying medicine. (who)

My friend's cousin ,who lives near us, is studying medicine.

- 5 The museum is free to visit. The exhibit is on there. (where)

The museum ,where the exhibit is on, is free to visit.

4

Ty says being a lookalike can be very hard at times. It sounds fun.

Ty says being a lookalike, which sounds fun, can be very hard at times.

5

Ty doesn't want to be known as Ed's lookalike forever. He'd like to be a successful YouTuber.

Ty, who'd like to be a successful YouTuber, doesn't want to be known as Ed's lookalike forever.

Things you should do cheer them up ∴

forgive them ∴

get along with them ∴

hang out with them ∴

keep in touch ∴

make them laugh ∴

support them ∴

tell the truth ∴

Things you shouldn't do

judge them ∴

have a falling out with them ∴

let them down ∴

lie to them ∴

2 ☆☆☆ Circle the correct option.

- 1 I usually get/hang out with my friends in town on Saturday. We go to a café or the shopping center.
- 2 You shouldn't forgive/judge people because you think their ideas are wrong.
- 3 It's important to have/keep in touch with friends. I call my friends most days.
- 4 You should cheer/forgive friends if they've upset you and not stay angry.
- 5 Don't lie/tell to friends – the truth is always better.
- 6 When I feel a little sad or upset, my friends cheer/support me up and I feel better.
- 7 When my friends have problems, I try to let/support them and help.
- 8 I get/make along really well with my sister. She's my best friend.
- 9 Even if you're scared someone will be angry, you should have/tell the truth.
- 10 My best friend and I never have/keep a falling out with each other. If there's a problem, we talk about it.
- 11 If friends lie/let me down and don't do what they say they will, it upsets me.

3 ☆☆☆ Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in the box.

forgive judge keep in touch make (someone) laugh support
tell the truth

Ask Andie

Got a problem? Ask Andie!

My best friend is moving to another city. What's the best way to 1 keep in touch ? Silvia29

I'm very good at telling jokes and 2 making my friends laugh. The problem is, nobody takes me seriously. People often criticize my behavior, but I don't think they should 3 judge me. What should I do? boy23

I lied to my friend about something. When I finally 4 told her the truth and explained what actually happened, she was really angry. Now, she won't 5 forgive me or stop being angry with me. Help! Ali33

My friend's dream is to be a doctor, but he finds it hard to study. I want to 6 support him and help him achieve his dream. What can I do? tigergirl

4 ☆☆☆ Order the words to complete the sentences.

- 1 I usually see Aarav on Saturday. I like hanging out with him (out / him / with / hanging).
- 2 My best friend is great. I get along with her (with / get / along / her).
- 3 Maria is really good at cheering me up (me / up / cheering) when I feel sad or upset.
- 4 Matt and Joe aren't speaking again. Matt frequently has a falling out with him (out / has / falling / him / with / a).
- 5 Jamie is always letting me down (down / letting / me). He promises to do something and then doesn't do it.

5 ☆☆☆ Complete the questions with a suitable verb. Then answer the questions.

1 Who do you get along best with?

Personal answers

2 Are you good at _____ your friends laugh?

3 Would you ever _____ to a friend and not tell them the truth? Why/Why not?