7 Look at the examples and circle the correct option to complete the rules.

The houses will have unusual shapes.

3D printing might help with housing problems.

- 1 will/might means something is definite in the future.
- 2 will/might means something is a possibility.

8 Circle the correct option.

- 1 Jan will/might be 15 next year. (He's 14 now.)
- 2 It will/might be sunny tomorrow. (It's the middle of the summer in Spain.)
- 3 It will/might be sunny tomorrow. (It's early spring in Canada.)
- 4 Tomorrow will/might be Monday. (Today is Sunday.)

- 9  Work in pairs. Discuss your answers to the questions in exercise 6. Use will and might.

When you're 30, what will your job be?

I don't know. I might be a pilot!

10 Answer the question to solve the Brain teaser.

A graphic for a brain teaser. The word "BRAIN" is formed by five interlocking puzzle pieces in red, orange, purple, blue, and green. To the right of the pieces is a pink rectangular box with the word "TEASER" in white. Below the puzzle pieces, inside the pink box, is the text of the puzzle.

BRAIN TEASER

Tess is 14 and her sister Vera is half her age.

How old will Vera be when Tess is twice her present age?

5 Challenge Write your own answers to the questions in exercise 4.

Thank

The word "Thank" is rendered in a large, bold, black serif font. It is decorated with several elements: a small green leaf on the 'h', a small red heart on the 'a', and a larger green leaf on the 'n'. Surrounding the text are four white speech bubble-like shapes. The top-left bubble contains three red hearts. The top-right bubble contains a red progress bar. The bottom-center bubble contains a red star. The entire graphic is set against a solid light beige background.
