Personal qualities

5

Check the meaning of the words in bold in the text. Read descriptions 1–4 and match pictures A–D with the descriptions.

1

This shape is solid, like a mountain, and shows many characteristics. Characters with this shape are often strong and confident, but they can also be big and scary or kind and clumsy. They're often determined like typical superheroes. They can be a little stubborn.

2

This is the most dynamic shape and it is often used to show danger and villains. Sharp lines and angles can make characters appear aggressive or arrogant and selfish, and suggest they might be cruel, grumpy and competitive.

5

Check the meaning of the words in bold in the text. Read descriptions 1–4 and match pictures A–D with the descriptions.

3

This shape is used for strong likeable characters who can be thoughtful and sensitive. They're usually modest and supportive of others.

4

When we think of this shape, soft and safe images appear. This shape shows friendly characters who are optimistic. These are happy characters who are sociable, chatty and outgoing. Many famous cartoon and comic book characters are designed around this shape.

7 Match the definitions with the words in bold in the text. Then think of a character from a movie, book or video game for each adjective.

- 1 not willing to let anything prevent them from doing what they have decided to do determined
- 2 not willing to change their ideas or consider anyone else's reasons or arguments stubborn
- 3 kind, and showing that they consider that what other people want or need is important thoughtful
- 4 unhappy and dissatisfied, often for no obvious reason; often complaining grumpy
- 5 friendly and enjoys talking to people chatty/outgoing
- 6 helpful and sympathetic supportive

- 11  Watch the video. Does the narrator believe personality types are fixed?

A magazine article

1 Look at the photos in the article and answer the questions.

- 1 Describe the clothes and think about the colors. What kind of people might wear them?
- 2 What do you think is unusual about the lifestyles of the people in the article?

This is me!

Is it excessive to dress only or mainly in one color? Could you do it? People have often used color in advertising to represent brands because color can send powerful messages at an emotional level – but what about as a personal ‘trademark’?

Ella London, who is originally from the UK but lives in Los Angeles, USA, is known as ‘Miss Sunshine’ because she's been wearing only yellow clothes for years. Always unconventional, she was wondering what color wedding dress to get when her husband-to-be suggested yellow. She loved the idea because yellow was her dad's favorite color, and the perfect color for an optimistic and outgoing person like her.

Ella wasn't originally intending to go ‘all yellow’; it happened slowly. Her first purchase was a top from eBay, then a friend gave her a cardigan and over the next four years, her collection grew until she was able to dress exclusively in yellow. Although shoes were the trickiest items to find, she's managed to find plenty, along with yellow make-up and accessories, yellow furniture and even a yellow car. For Ella, it's a cool way of expressing herself and she loves it when people ask about her look. Recently, a video about her went viral: people were fascinated by ‘Miss Sunshine’. Since then she's been posting a daily photo of herself on Instagram and now has followers worldwide.

Designer Gary Card fell in love with the color purple when he was five, although he didn't start wearing it until he was in high school. Initially, he changed his school jacket so that the inside of it was purple and wore purple socks. Although other students used to bully him for it, Gary was determined not to stop. After he'd been certified as a designer, he became well known for his purple outfits and having a memorable look was often an advantage in the design world. In his 20s, he used to only wear purple, though these days he mixes it with other colors.

Why purple? For Gary, it's a fascinating and mysterious color because it's both warm and cool, and it's always in fashion. As well as clothes, he's bought purple furniture and his most expensive possessions (two portfolios for carrying artwork) are purple. He's also had some fantastic presents including 30 different purple toothbrushes from his mother.

While some people might argue that dressing in a single color is an obsession, for others it's a way of life that makes them feel good. Perhaps the most important thing is to be true to yourself.
