I witnessed something very strange in Boston last week. At first I looked and it was just an unusual green bus. I watched it driving towards the River Charles. But it never stopped when it reached the river! It actually continued driving! It entered the water and suddenly the bus was a boat! Later, a friend explained to me that an American designed this type of vehicle during World War II. It was a DUKW, but people called it the 'duck' or the 'duck boat'. They're still used worldwide, but mainly for tourism purposes.

The Mirror

adapted from The Evil Mirror by Hilda Lima

Mr. and Mrs. Rodriguez bought a mirror in an old antique shop. The salesman told them the mirror was haunted, but Mr. Rodriguez was incredulous. At home, Mr. Rodriguez hung the mirror in the library, and he showed it to his sons Charly and Eddie.

Later that day, the boys invited their friend Mario to play at their house. The three boys stood in front of the mirror and made funny faces. Suddenly, a mysterious forest appeared inside. The boys were super curious about the forest inside the mirror. Charly, Eddie, and Mario decided to enter the mirror. The boys walked in the forest until they found a lagoon. The three boys swam happily in the lagoon until three huge crocodiles attacked them! They got out and ran as fast as they could. Creatures with red eyes scared the boys. They ran desperately through the forest until they escaped the mirror and returned home. Finally, back at home, Charly broke the mirror with a baseball bat. The boys felt relieved, and they kept the secret about the Evil Mirror forever.
