- a Teenagers are worried about school.
 - b Teenagers are stressed because they do too many activities.

READING STRATEGY

Use the title to help you guess what the text is about.

Teens under Pressure

Stressed Parents

Imagine this situation ... your parents come home from work. They're tired, but they don't relax. Instead, they have a full program of activities. Your dad has a music lesson, then he gets some work ready for the next day before he prepares the evening meal. After eating, he does volunteer work at the hospital. Your mom does judo, then she studies for an hour, eats and then goes to her computer class. Does this sound crazy? Well, for some teenagers, it's typical!

Busy Teenagers

In the US, doing organized activities outside school, such as playing an instrument or going to a youth group, is popular among young people. Around 35% play sports as a free-time activity. About 29% of teens regularly volunteer, for example they help at an animal shelter. Parents want their children to do well at school, but they also want them to have other skills, such as learning languages. They want them to take part in community activities such as volunteering. But are they putting their children under too much pressure?

A Teenager Speaks

Thirteen-year-old Beth Jefferson is a typical teenager. 'You get a lot of pressure from your parents to study and you get pressure from your friends to go out and have fun. I'm always busy. I'm in a youth theater and we do a play every year. I go to guitar classes, play basketball and I help at home, too. I hardly ever watch TV during the week because I don't usually have time! It's really stressful sometimes.'

Advice

However, Beth has some good advice: 'Don't try to do too much. Have fun doing activities and learning new things, but don't get stressed. Remember, you need to enjoy your life, too!'

2

Read and listen. Underline the free-time activities mentioned.
