The Name Game

When is a name not a name? Is your name the same as your mom or dad's name? Or a grandparent's? Here in the West it's common to give a baby the same name as a relative, but in the East, for example in China, it isn't at all! It is disrespectful.

Is your name your parents' favorite place? Where are Brooklyn, Orlando and Paris? Or who are they? They are beautiful places but they're also first names! And what about fruit? How about Apple or Peaches? They are strange but they're also real names! And why is Metallica Sutton called Metallica? It's a cool name for a heavy metal band ... but for a girl? Metallica's parents are Metallica fans but they say that Metallica is a combination of their names: Merrick and Natalia. So, where is your name from? Do you know?

2 Read the magazine article again. Then write T for true and F for false.

- a ☐ In China it's common to name a baby after a relative.
- b ☐ Brooklyn is the name of a person and a place.
- c ☐ Apple is the name of a person and a fruit.
- d ☐ Metallica Sutton is a heavy metal fan.
- e ☐ Metallica Sutton is a girl. Her mom's name is Natalia.
