TOO / ENOUGH

❖ DIFFERENCE

ENOUGH

comes after adjectives and adverbs, but before nouns. We use it when we have sufficient, and it has a positive meaning.

This suitcase is big enough for everything I'm taking.

TOO

comes before adjectives and adverbs. We use it when we have more than sufficient, and it has a negative meaning.

Scientists have worked out that modern music is too loud.

READING

I am Jara. I am a professional motorcyclist. I am used to drive fast, so I has to do it carefully. I started to learn driving slowly. I have trained hard during these years. I learn new tricks quickly, without many efforts.

When I was 8 years old I watched a lot of motorcycle racings. I sat quietly in front of the TV and dreamed about being one of them. Then, I learned to ride a bike. I was able to ride it agilely and easily.

When my parents bought me my first motorcycle, every afternoon I happily rode it along all my town. Everybody knew I was there, because the motorcycle sounded loudly.
