

ENGLISH

Chapter 13 Session B

4th
SECONDARY

FOLLOWERS OF FASHION
Relative Pronouns / Some, any, no

 SACO OLIVEROS

Relative Pronouns

- 1 Read the sentences below. Write if the words in bold refer to people (P), things (T), locations (L) or time (TI). Then write the words they refer to.

- T the stiletto In the 1950s, Italian designers created the stiletto, which has a very thin pointed heel.
- a T shoes Sports brand Nike has produced shoes that look like human feet.
- b P The woman No one has a bigger shoe collection than the woman who owned around 3,000 pairs.

- c L Italy Italy is the country where fashion is a must.
- d P The girls Trendsetters that wear heelless shoes find them difficult to walk in.
- e TI In the 1970s Platform boots became trendy in the 1970s when rock bands began to wear them.

2 Based on the rules below, complete the chart.

- a Relative pronouns are used to connect sentences. They refer to nouns (people, places, things mentioned previously).
- b When we talk about people we can use who or that.
- c When we talk about things we can use which or that.
- d When we talk about places / locations, we use where.
- e When we talk about time, we use when.

people

The woman Who/that lives in that house owns a shoe store.

things

Chinese factories produce a lot of clothes that/which are sold in Europe.

time

An engineer invented the bikini in 1946, when Americans were testing atom bombs in the Bikini Atoll.

place

Milan is a city where many glamorous shoes are made.

3 Choose the correct words.

- a Noritaka Tatehana is the man who / which designs shoes for Lady Gaga.
- b The 1950s is that / when stiletto shoes became fashionable.
- c The jackets which / when my brother bought were really expensive.
- d She's the girl that / which I met at the party.
- e Where's the scarf who / that I lent you last night?
- f San Francisco is that / where my cousins live.

4 Match the columns to make sentences.

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| a That's the store | d that cost you $100? |
| b I'm the person | a where I bought my suit. |
| c New Year's was | f which bit me. |
| d Is that the dress | c when I last saw him. |
| e He's the man | b who called you yesterday. |
| f That's the dog | e that emailed me last week. |

- 5 Complete the sentences with who, which, where or when.

You've probably bought a T-shirt or some jeans from H&M, but how much do you know about the popular clothes store? Read on to find out more.

Erling Persson is the man who started the company. Västerås in Sweden is a where the first store opened. 1947 is b when Persson opened his first store. There are now over 160,000 employees c who work for the company. H&M employs 100 designers d who work on the clothes. 4,553 is the number of stores e which the company owns. The things f which the company sells include clothes, shoes and cosmetics.

- In informal language, we can omit which, who or that when the pronoun refers to the object of the sentence.
The shoes they are wearing have a basic design. (Notice that the shoes are the object of the verb 'wear'; in this case, we don't need to use that or which.)
- Which, who or that can never be omitted when they refer to the subject of a sentence.
It was Lady Gaga who / that first wore 'heelless shoes'. (In this case, Lady Gaga is the subject of the verb 'wear', so who / that cannot be omitted.)
- Whose is used to indicate possession.
Boots whose platform soles became trendy in the 1970s can be seen in lots of different styles.

If your teen doesn't like the clothes a that / X are perfect for them in your opinion, you are not alone. He or she is not the only adolescent b which / who thinks you don't have a clue about fashion. Don't worry! As teens grow, fashion is one of the ways c X / where they use to express their feelings and show how they see the world. Teens d who / X undergo 'style-change' are just trying to express themselves.

- 6 Read the text about fashion for teens and underline the appropriate relative pronouns. X refers to omission of the pronoun.

7  INTERFACE Work in pairs. Ask and answer the questions using relative pronouns.

What's a food that you really don't like?
What's the name of a person who makes you laugh?

Personal answer

LISTENING

A Famous Designer

- 1 Look at the pictures. Who is the woman in the picture on the left? What is her job?

Personal answer

2

Listen to the first part of the interview. Check your answers.

The woman is Stella
McCartney.
She's a fashion designer.

3  45 Listen to the second part of the interview and answer the questions.

a Where did she grow up?

1 in London 2 near London

b What sort of school did she go to?

1 an expensive private school

2 the local state school

c When did she become interested in fashion?

1 as a teenager 2 as a grown-up

d Where did she study fashion?

1 in Paris 2 in London

e Who modelled at her first fashion show?

1 Kate Moss 2 Claudia Schiffer

f When did she start working for Chloe?

1 1997 2 2001

g Who did she design a wedding dress for in 2000?

1 Kate Moss 2 Madonna

h Why doesn't she use leather or fur?

1 because she is against animal cruelty
2 because they are very expensive

Relative Pronouns

1 Underline the correct words.

Mary Quant was a fashion designer which / who became famous in London in the sixties.

- a The 1960s was the time where / when miniskirts first became fashionable.
- b The store which / where I bought this jacket is on Maple Street.
- c I know a girl which / who is a successful fashion model.
- d Why don't you wear those shoes that / who you bought last week?
- e I didn't like those people which / that we met in the park.
- f Let's go to that museum who / which has antique clothes on display.

2 Match the sentence beginnings with the endings.

- a 3 My friend has a cat
- b 2 That's the girl
- c 1 Do you remember that day
- d 7 Are you the person
- e 6 Can I see the dress
- f 4 Let's go to that store
- g 5 I don't like people

- 1 when we both wore the same clothes?
- 2 who smiled at you in the park.
- 3 that loves watching TV.
- 4 where you got your jacket.
- 5 who always show off.
- 6 that you wore to the party?
- 7 that I spoke to on the phone?

3 Complete the text using which, who, where or when.

A friend of mine who is studying fashion design recently had to create clothes from unusual materials. One material a which she used was plastic trash bags. She made clothes with them b which looked really expensive. There were other students in her course c who made amazing skirts and dresses out of newspaper d which they folded into pleats. My friend asked me to wear one of her creations on the day e when her teachers were coming to see her work. I agreed but I didn't realize it was a really big deal. I went to the college f where there was a room full of photographers. I found my friend and she took me to the back g where there was a changing room. I put on the black plastic dress h which she had made and i which looked amazing on me. Then I had to walk down the catwalk j where there were lots of other models and loads of photographers who took pictures of me. I enjoyed it, especially at the end k when a woman from a modeling agency offered me some paid work. But the best bit was l when I took off the plastic dress. It looked great but it was very hot under those bright lights!

4 Join the sentences using who, which, where or when.

I have some fashion magazines. They're from the sixties.

I have some fashion magazines which are from the sixties.

- a There's a man outside. He wants to see you.

There's a man outside who wants to see you.

- b There's a store on Santee Street. You can get two pairs of shoes for $30.

There's a store on Santee Street where you can get two pairs of shoes for $30.

- c I can't wait for the summer. We can wear shorts and sandals.

I can't wait for the summer when we can wear shorts and sandals.

- d I have a friend. She always makes her own clothes.

I have a friend who always makes own clothes.

- e There's a bookstore on my street. You can look at books and have a coffee.

There's a bookstore on my street where you can look at books and have a coffee.

- f I have a dress of my grandmother's. It looks great on me.

I have a dress of my grandmother's which looks great on me