Thorpeness is a small village in the east of England and we a was / were there on our vacation last month. We usually stay in a hotel when we're on holiday, but this time we b was / were in a house for two weeks. It's called the 'House in the Clouds' because it's about 21 meters high! It's an interesting house. About 90 years ago it c was / were a water tower. Do you know what a water tower is? d There were / Were a lot of them before.

They e was / were tall buildings and they contained water for the houses around them. Anyway, water towers f were / was ugly so the architect designed this one to look like a house. There g was / were a house under the water tower at that time. Then, in 1977, they converted the building into a house. It isn't a water tower now. My bedroom h were / was on the fourth floor so I could see Thorpeness beach and the sea. The sand on the beach i was / were lovely. j There was / There were an artificial lake in the village. You can't swim in it, but you can go boating. It k was / were fun!

See you soon,
Lily
