Do you know what a goji berry is? A goji berry is a small, red fruit that comes from China. People eat goji berries as a snack, because they're a superfood. That means they're very good for you. They contain a lot of beta-carotene, vitamins and antioxidants. People don't eat fresh goji berries, they eat dried ones. You buy them in supermarkets and health shops. I eat them for breakfast. They are delicious!
