► Subskill: Using images and captions to help understand a text

Images and captions can often give you clues about the key themes in an article.

2 Look at all the photos and read the captions.

Wildlife charities now benefit every time Naruto's photo is used.

Macaques are fascinated by their own image – in Indonesian towns and villages they are often seen sitting on scooters, looking at themselves in the mirror.

Photographer David Slater was sued by a macaque from Indonesia.

Circle the option you think is correct.

- 1 Naruto is a monkey / a wildlife charity.
- 2 David Slater works for an animal charity / is a wildlife photographer.
- 3 David Slater gets 75% / 25% of the money from the photo.

4 Read the information about macaques. Then match 1–5 with a–e to make sentences.

1 Crested macaques are b

2 The macaque population has d

3 People who hunt macaques aren't e

4 The macaques' habitat is a

5 People sometimes c
