The happiest city in the world!

Melbourne, Madrid and New York City are all fun places to live, but the 1 (...) place, according to a recent survey, is Chicago.

2 (...) a lot of places to eat, and the city is famous for its delicious street food. It 3 (...) cost a lot. In fact, Chicago is cheaper 4 (...) many other cities in the USA.

There are 5 (...) fun things to do on weekends. You can take a boat on the river or walk around Millennium Park. If you like 6 (...), you can also see the park by bike. Or why not go to the top of the Willis Tower? You 7 (...) stand outside the building in a glass box. How many cities offer an experience like that?
