Colin Firth Wins an Oscar!

After the huge success of his movie The King's Speech, it was no surprise that Colin Firth won the Oscar for best actor for his starring role as King George VI. Since the movie was released in January 2011, it has made over $400 million dollars at the box office. Firth is currently working on new projects.

WINNER: Firth with his Oscar

READING 1

- 1 Look at the texts. Which one do you think looks the most interesting? Why?

Personal answer

READING STRATEGY

Identify the genre of a text in order to know what to expect from it.

2  70 Read and listen to the texts. Write T for true or F for false. Then give reasons for your answer.

- a ☐ F Text 1: Joanna has bought a new car.
“I’m going to buy it tomorrow”.
- b ☐ F Text 6: The movie The King’s Speech hasn’t been a success.
“After the huge success...”
- c ☐ F Text 8: Taylor’s Travel sells expensive vacations.
“starting at just $200...”
- d ☐ F Text 7: The dictionary entry only gives information about the meaning of the word.

The gramatical tenses of the word are given, too.

- e T Text 4: Someone spent $3.70 on fruit and vegetables.

“Total $3.70”

- f F Text 2: George Bernard Shaw thinks that communication is easy.

What he means is that you can think that you have communicated something, but in reality the message hasn't been understood.

- g F Text 5: You have to make the salmon paté one day before you want to eat it.

“Chill in the fridge overnight”

3 Find the words or phrases in the texts for definitions a-e.

a a false or wrong belief or idea (text 2)

illusion

b cut into tiny pieces (text 5) chopped

c metro (text 7) subway

d a place to stay (text 8) accommodation

e the main part in a play, movie or TV series (text 6) starring role

4  CLASS VOTE What do you think? Do you agree with the quote (text 2)?
