Personal answer

A Yard Sale

73 Martina and Ed are planning a yard sale. Listen and complete the dialogue.

Well, I think I've 've already gathered all the items for our yard sale.

Good! b Have you priced all the goods?

Yeah, but it wasn't an easy task. You know, shoppers look for bargains; we can't go high on c prices...

Our plan is get rid of all this stuff and donate the money for the local church homeless program. That means we have to sell everything to d raise as much as we can.

For the 'more valuable' items, I e 've thought about writing 'make an offer' on the price tag.

SPEAKING

A Yard Sale

73 Martina and Ed are planning a yard sale. Listen and complete the dialogue.

Good idea! The next step is setting the date and time.

I believe we should start at 8 in the morning, from 8am to 6pm, what do you think?

Perfect! Let's check the Weather forecast to choose the best sunny Saturday or Sunday...

That's really important!
Next step:
g Advertising it!

I'll post it on the local newspaper and all h social media platforms. I'm sure our friends will help us, too!

FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

Planning a Sale

I've already gathered...

Have you priced...?

Our plan is...

Speaking Task

Write a dialogue between you and a friend.

Step 1

Choose one of the informal events:

A yard sale

A garage sale

A swap meet

A bric-a-brac sale

Step 2

Talk about the organization of the event.

I've already gathered...

I've decided on the date and time...

We need to advertise...

Think about what your friend is going to ask.

How much...?

Have you priced...?

What time should we start?

What date should we choose?

Have you advertised it yet?

Step 3

Work with a partner. Write your dialogue.
Follow the conversation above as a guide.

Step 4

Take turns practicing your dialogue.
