Buying tickets

1  Watch the video and complete 1–4 in the dialogue. How is Kate traveling?

Ticket agent

Can I help you?

Kate

Yes, I'd like tickets for the cable car, please.

Ticket agent

Are you travelling now?

Kate

Yes – how long does it take?

Ticket agent

About 1 10 minutes.
Single or return?

Kate

Two singles, please – we'll be coming back on the Tube.

Ticket agent

OK. Are you over 15?

Kate

Yes – we're both 2 16.
How much is it?

Ticket agent

It's 3 £4,50 single, so that'll be £9.00, please.

Kate

£9.00?

Ticket agent

Yes. Are you paying cash or card?

Kate

Er, I'll pay 4 cash please.

Ticket agent

Thanks. You get on just over there.

Kate

Great, thanks!

2 Watch again and answer the questions.

1 Why doesn't Kate buy round-trip tickets?
Because she's traveling back by Tube/subway.

2 Why does the ticket agent asks Kate's age?
Probably because the price is lower for younger people.

3 What is the advantage of doing this journey by cable car, in your opinion?
It's more fun, better views and it's a new way to see the sights.

3 Read the Key phrases. Who says each question, the ticket agent or the customer?

SKILLS BOOST

THINK

Look at the information and think about your trip. Will you need a one-way or round-trip ticket? How many people are traveling? How are you going to pay?

PREPARE

Prepare your dialogue. Use the Key phrases and the model dialogue to help you.

PRACTICE

Practice your dialogue. Remember to use intonation to make your questions clear.

PERFORM

Act out your dialogue for the class.

Unit 6

going to /'gɒnə/

In spoken English, we often pronounce going to as gonna /'gɒnə/.

1 75 Listen and repeat the sentences.

- 1 What are we going to do now?
- 2 I'm going to get the bus into town.
- 3 Really? You aren't going to go out now, are you?

2  76 Listen and write the sentences. Write the full form of going to.

Are you going to study tonight?

No, I'm going to watch a movie.

We aren't going to be late.

A photograph featuring three white daisies with bright yellow centers. One daisy is in sharp focus in the foreground to the right of a small, rectangular, light-brown cardboard tag. Two other daisies are in the background, slightly out of focus. The tag is placed on a rustic, light-colored wooden surface with visible grain. A dark, thin string or wire is visible, passing behind the tag and one of the background daisies.

Thank you!
