Good Deeds Day in India

Good Deeds Day is a global celebration which unites people from over 100 countries to do good deeds for the benefit of others and the planet: every single person can do something good to improve the lives of others and, therefore, help change the world for the better. In addition to changing some groups' attitudes during Good Deeds Day, the NVP (Non-Violence Project Foundation) in India wants to inspire, engage and motivate young people to understand how to solve conflicts peacefully. They focus on two areas: Education and Raising Awareness.

They believe in education and follow Mahatma Gandhi's words: "If you want to change the world, you must start with the children." Inspiring youth through education is their philosophy. They understand education has the power to build and ensure a strong base for tolerance, acceptance and respect for human rights.

Their approach is based on interaction and creativity and they count on teachers, sport coaches and youth leaders to interact with young people face-to-face, or through e-learning.

Good Deeds Day is, then, a great opportunity to share such good deeds with the world!
