embarrassment	kindness	– pessimism	joy

Short interviews

- 6 No Read the questions. What do you think people might reply? Then listen to five interviews. Do the speakers mention your ideas?
 - 1 What do you think of music in public spaces, e.g. stores and elevators?
 - 2 Should people be able to listen to music on public transportation?
 - 3 Should buskers be allowed?

Subskill: Understanding the speaker's attitude

Listening carefully to what the speaker says and their tone of voice will help you understand their attitude. How are they feeling? Are they happy, surprised, embarrassed, etc.?

Listen and match descriptions a–f with speakers 1–5. There is one description that you do not need.

Which speaker ...?

- a describes being embarrassed about something
- b is angry about something
- c is surprised about something
- d mentions music that makes them feel calm
- describes how some music encourages boredom
- f thinks music makes people more sympathetic to others

4 International Busking Day takes place in 1,000 cities worldwide in July.

5 The band Imagine Dragons is from America.

9 Work in pairs. Ask and answer the questions in exercise 6. Did you agree or disagree with the speakers? Why?

Question tags

to complete the rules.

Read the examples and circle the correct option

The music isn't for the shoppers, is it?

They weren't enjoying the music, were they?

Music has that effect, doesn't it?

You sang along to the song, didn't you?

You've seen them in concert, haven't you?

She hasn't bought the tickets, has she?

3 In the tag, the subject goes before after the auxiliary verb or be. When the verb in the main phrase is affirmative, the tag is affirmative negative. When the verb in the main phrase is negative, the tag is affirmative/hegative.

SACO OLIVEROS

1 To form a question tag (except with be), we use an auxiliary verb. The auxiliary verb agrees/

2 When the verb in the main phrase is be, the tag is with the correct form of be/do. In the present and past progressive we also use be in the tag.

doesn't agree with the subject.
