

ENGLISH

Chapter 24
Session B

3rd SECONDARY EN

IN THE NEWS

HELICOMOTIVATION

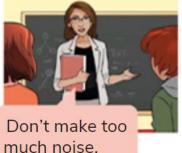

You should look up new words in a dictionary.

- Sam suggested that Jess look up to look up new words in a dictionary.
- ? Toni asked Adam that he oper/to open the window.
- 3 Ellie told Carly to stop/stop talking.
- 4 The teacher told the class don't not to make too much noise.

Page 127

1 Our teacher told us (...) careful about fake news.

a be

- b to be
- c not to be

2 A friend of mine suggested (...) his blog.

- a read
- b to read

3 I offered (...) Mehmet a link to my favorite news website.

- a send
- b sending

4 My dad asked (...) quiet while the news was on TV.

a me be

- b me to be c that I was 5 Our teacher suggested (...) for the same story in different places.

- a) that we look b to look c look
- 6 I told my brother (...) everything that he reads.
 - a) not to believe b not believe c to not believe

1 Read Pablo's report. Did he enjoy the event? How do you know?

Laugh out Loud!

Pablo Sanchez reports on yesterday's WORLD LAUGHTER DAY celebrations

1 World Laughter Day is celebrated every year on the first Sunday of May. Yesterdays celebration here at the park in Pueblo Nuevo is a fun-filled day for all the family.

2 According to organizers, about 3,000 people attended the event. 'It was a huge success, said Ana, one of the volunteers. The day began with a group laughter session, followed by a program of comedy and live music.

3 Ana explained that World Laughter Day began in India in 1998, and that now it was celebrated in more than 100 countrys around the world. Apparently, some studies suggest that group laughter promotes well-being for the whole community.

4 When I asked whether would there be a similar event next year, organizers told me that they hoped it would become an annual event. Let's hope so! They added that more information was available on there blog, and photos of yesterday's event would soon be uploaded on social media.

Page 104

Match questions a-h with paragraphs 1-4 in Pablo's report. (There are two questions for each paragraph.)

a	How many people attended the event?
b	What is the background to the event?	3

- b What is the background to the event?
- When was the event held?
- Is more information available?
- Where was the event?
- What activities were there?
- Why is the event held?
- h Will the event be held again?

3 Answer the questions in exercise 2.

- a How many people attended the event?3000 people
- b What is the background to the event? World Laughter Day began in India in 1998 and is now celebrated in over 100 countries.
- c When was the event held? yesterday
- d Is more information available?Yes, on the blog.

3 Answer the questions in exercise 2.

- Where was the event?At the park in Pueblo Nuevo.
- f What activities were there? A group laughter session, a program of comedy and live music.
- g Why is the event held? To promote well-being for the whole community.
- h Will the event be held again? Possibly next year.

Subskill: Editing your writing

Always check your work for errors of: grammar (e.g. tenses, word order), spelling (e.g. plurals, words that sound the same), punctuation (e.g. speech marks, apostrophes).

4 Identify each type of error in Pablo's report.

Then correct the errors.

1 World Laughter Day is celebrated every year on the first Sunday of May.

Vectordays celebration here at the park in Pueblo Nuevo is a fun-filled day for all the family.

2 According to organizers, about 3,000 people attended the event. 'It was a huge success, said Ana, one of the volunteers. The day began with a group laughter session, followed by a program of comedy and live music.

3 Ana explained that World Laughter Day began in India in 1998, and that now it was celebrated in more than 100 countrys around the world. Apparently, some studies suggest that group laughter promotes well-being for the whole community.

4 When I asked whether would there be a similar event next year, organizers told me that they hoped it would become an annual event. Let's hope so! They added that more information was available on there blog, and photos of yesterday's event would soon be uploaded on social media.

Laugh out Loud!

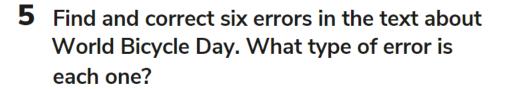

Pablo Sanchez reports on yesterday's WORLD LAUGHTER DAY celebrations

World Laughter Day is celebrated every year on the first Sunday of May. Yesterdays
(Yesterday's) celebration here at the park in Pueblo Nuevo is (was) a fun-filled day for all the family.

According to organiers, about 3,000 people attended the event. 'It was a huge success,' ('It was a huge success,') said Ana, one of the volunteers. The day began with a group laughter session, followed by a program of comedy and live music.

Ana explained that World Laughter Day began in India in 1998, and that now it was celebrated in more than 100 countrys (countries) around the world. Apparently, some studies suggest that group laughter promotes well-being for the whole community.

When I asked whether would there be (there would be) a similar event next year, organizers told me that they hoped it would become an annual event. Let's hope so! They added that more information was available on there (their) blog, and photos of yesterday's event would soon be uploaded on social media.

World Bicycle Day was celebrated last weekend in my town, on June 3rd. According to organizers, the event was a great success. There is a mass bike ride in the morning and all the roads were closed to traffic. Biking has social, economic and environmental benefits for all communitys,' explained one of the organizers. I asked if had they plans for other similar events, and they told me that they hoped to keep the roads car-free on other Sunday mornings to. Lets hope so!

World Bicycle Day was celebrated last weekend in my town, on June 3rd. According to organizers, the event was a great success. There is (was) a mass bike ride in the morning and all the roads were closed to traffic. Biking ('Biking) has social, economic and environmental benefits for all communitys (communities), explained one of the organizers. I asked if had they (they had) plans for other similar events, and they told me that they hoped to keep the roads car-free on other Sunday mornings to (too). Lets (Let's) hope so!

6 Write a news report about a local event. Follow the steps in the Skills boost.

SKILLS BOOST

THINK

- 1 Choose an event that happened recently at your school or in your town/region, or invent one.
- 2 Answer the questions in exercise 2 about your event. Make notes.

PREPARE

Organize your notes into four paragraphs:

- 1 When? / Where?
- 2 Who? / What?
- 3 Background / Why?
- 4 More info / Future?

WRITE

Write your report. Use the model to help you.

CHECK

Read your report and answer the questions.

- 1 Did you use direct and reported speech?
- 2 Did you include vocabulary for news and reporting verbs?
- 3 Did you write four paragraphs?
- 4 Did you edit your work?

Page 105

Peer review Exchange your report with another student. Does the writer make this event sound interesting? Would you like to go?

Modals of deduction

Reinforcement Circle the correct option.

Did you hear the story about the penguins that paint with their feet?

Anna: That 1 must/can't be true! Penguins don't paint!

Finn: It is true. My cousin told me about it.

Anna: You must 2 misunderstand/have misunderstood.

No. she told me that she'd seen a video of them. It 3 must/can't be true!

Anna: Well, I know that other animals paint, so you

4 can't/might be right.

Finn: Let's go online and see.

Did you hear the news that the next James Finn:

Bond will be a woman?

Anna: No way! You 5 must/must have misheard.

But there are a lot of female superheroes

these days.

Anna: But James Bond is always a man. It 6 might/can't be true.

Well, you might 7 be have been right, but I'm going to Google it and check.

Page 127

from 1 to 5

