Steven Spielberg

Steven Allan Spielberg is one of the finest Hollywood directors in the history of the movie industry and also one of the founding pioneers of the new Hollywood era. He has directed many popular and significant movies in the recent Hollywood history, such as E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, Jurassic Park, Close Encounters of the Third Kind, Schindler's List and Saving Private Ryan. In a career spanning more than four decades, Spielberg's movies have covered many themes and genres (science fiction, action-adventure and high drama). Is he thinking about retiring? No way! Spielberg likes to stay busy. He is either planning his next step as an iconic moviemaker, thinking about the next massive blockbuster, or producing something we'll probably watch and enjoy immensely.

Right now, he is developing a new feature-movie adaptation of the classic musical West Side Story. However, he announced that Indiana Jones 5 has been added to his production schedule, with Harrison Ford returning for one more adventure in the title role. He is going to start shooting it in 2019 for a 2020 release.
