Sunny Days isn't as expensive as Paradise.

Notes and messages

1 Lola is writing messages about money. Look at the list of people she needs to contact, then read messages A–C and add the missing names.

write to:

- Grandma about Maxine's present
- Maxine about the money that she borrowed
- Mom about money for museum visit

Maxine

Remember I lent you $10 3 WEEKS AGO??!!!! Can you pay me back? I'm going to the tomorrow night with Bea and Lorna and I need $$$$$

Hi Mom

Lola xx

Mr. Harrison told us today that the school trip costs $40. I need to pay it tomorrow, so can you give me the money in the morning? Hope it's not too late. Thanks.

Dear Grandma

I looked at that bag that you asked me to get for Maxine's birthday; it was $45. Is that too expensive? There was a cheaper bag, but it wasn't big enough for her computer.

Lots of love,

Lola

Dear Lola,

Please get the bag you saw. No problem about the price, that 's fine. I'll give you $10 extra when I see you on the weekend.

Many thanks,

Grandma

Hi darling,

No problem. I went to the bank on the way home so I can give you the money at breakfast.

Mom

Hey big sis,

I have your money. Sorry I forgot before. You are the best bank I know!! PS Can I borrow your black dress on Friday? Mine isn't dressy enough for the concert.

3 Read the messages again and find the following:

- three ways to greet someone at the start of a message (Which is the most formal and which is the most informal?)
- two ways to say 'thank you'

Subskill: too + adjective, not + adjective + enough

We use too + adjective when there is more than we need. It's too hot in here.

We use not + adjective + enough when there is insufficient of something. He isn't fast enough for the track and field team.

4 Find sentences with too + adjective and not + adjective + enough in the messages.

6 Write some messages. Follow the steps in the Skills boost.

SKILLS BOOST

THINK

Think of three messages you might need to write about money to three different people. Use the ideas here or think of your own. Make notes.

- You need to pay for something at school; ask your parents for some money.
- You can't go to the stores today; ask someone to buy something for you.
- You're buying a present together with another person; leave a note about the present.

PREPARE

Write your messages on three separate pieces of paper.

- 1 Use the examples in exercise 1 to help you.
- 2 Include some sentences with too + adjective or not + adjective + enough.

WRITE

Give your messages to three different students. Write replies to the messages you receive and give them back to the student. Use the examples in exercise 2 to help you.

CHECK

Read your messages and answer the questions.

- 1 Do you use too + adjective or not + adjective + enough?
- 2 Are the messages clear?
- 3 Do you use the right language (more or less formal) for each person?

7 Peer review Look at all the messages you have. Are the messages and replies clear?
